CONTINENTAL WINS GREAT DISTINCTION

The distinction of being the first insurance company to finish the payment of its San Francisco conflagration losses is claimed by the Continental of New York. Several companies have been anxious to secure this honor and the Continental is triumphant in the race. Yesterday it paid the last claim against it on account of the fire of April 18th.

Arthur G. Nason, general agent of the Continental, says: "The Continental has repeated the record it made at Baltimore in 1904, when it was the first to get through with the settlement of losses. It was the first company to begin paying here, its first settlement being made on April 23d, ten days after the conflagration began. It has completed the work of adjustment and payment in four months and eight days from that time. It had a full corps o fadjusters from the Chicago and New York offices—men noted for their ability and courtesy—and they dealt with proofs of loss as soon as filed. The Continental has paid 807 claims, aggregating $2,462,790, and has made payment in full, without any discount whatever, regardless of reinsurance, which was pleaded by so many other companies as a reason for not giving the full amount due. The largest individual draft was given Wells, Fargo & Co., being for $82,895.88. The Continental still has assets in excess or $17,000,000 and a net surplus of over $7,750,000.

and a bullet entered the car, causing the explosion.

The other is that while the car was standing on a side track a carload of pigiron was switched against it and that the impact caused the explosion.

Jellico is situated on the Tennessee-Kentucky line about 40 miles from Knoxville, the main business portion of the town being on the Tennessee line. Two lines of railroads enter it. The depot of the Southern, which is located near the scene of the explosion is entirely wrecked.

Fully 200 Were Injured

Two hotels, the Glen Morgan and the Carmathian, were badly wrecked, the third story of the latter being wholly destroyed. Mark Atkins, who was asleep in a room on the third floor of the Carmathian at the time, is one of the most seriously injured of the list of sufferers, which numbers fully 200, counting all who were slightly injured. Business houses were badly disfigured and stocks of goods ruined, while residences suffered, windows and doors being blown out in houses one mile distant.

Among the buildings totally destroyed was the Armour Packing company's warehouse, the Jung Brewing company warehouse, oil tank and warehouse of the Kentucky Consumers Oil company and the Standard Oil warehouse. The Jellico Furniture company's building collapsed and the stock of the Smith Dry Goods company was practically ruined, although the building which it occupied, the Cumberland opera house, escaped with little damage.

Heavy Loss to Business

Fully twenty other firms suffered losses but they occupied small buildings. Rescuers began work soon after the explosion and medical aid was asked of Knoxville, which sent a dozen physicians to minister to the wounded. The holding of inquests over the bodies of the victims was begun this afternoon, but was not completed. Many people are homeless as the result of the disaster, and as almost every chimney was destroyed, cooking cannot be done in many of the houses.

TAKES OFF THE LID ON CAMPAIGN FUNDS

Commission Will Hear all About the Alleged Contributions by the Railroads to the Campaign Fund to Defeat La Follette of Wisconsin

ST. PAUL, Sept. 21—Late this evening the state railroad and warehouse commission, which is conducting a hearing regarding the reasonableness of commodity rates, decided to "take the lid off" with reference to testimony which Attorney James Mannahan of the Receivers' and Shippers' Association has been endeavoring to get into the records for the past two days, concerning money alleged to have been spent by the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis and Omaha, in an attempt to defeat Robert La Follette of Wisconsin in his last gubernatorial campaign. The commissioners yesterday decided that this testimony was not germane to the hearing. Today, however, Commissioner Staples expressed the opinion that such testimony was material. He stated that by showing how much money the railroad has spent in politics and had taken from its gross earnings it might be shown that because of this expenditure the rates on commodities had been kept higher. The hearing will be continued Monday.

FIGHT AVERTED ON FLOOR OF STOCK EXCHANGE

Oscar J. Smith Attacked by H. E. Sherman for Alleged High-Handed Methods in Meetings of Board of Directors, but Fail to Come to Blows

The first appearance of friction among the members of the Reno Stock and Bond Exchange was evidenced yesterday morning after the session when H. E. Sherman, a member of the 'change, with a grievance, confronted Vice President Oscar J. Smith in anger over the alleged high-handed methods of the board of directors.

Sherman made his attack general when the argument began and he included the entire executive body of the exchange, it is said, in his accusations. The angry member expostulated with Smith for calling star chamber sessions of the directors without the knowledge of the plebian members of the 'change. He asserted that the methods of the governing body were not for the good of the cause and that in the end they would cause endless trouble

Smith attempted to explain the workings of the directors and then Sherman, angered at the supposed affront, renewed his attack. What promised to become a general fight was narrowly averted and Sherman was taken care of by his fellows. Some of those who itnessed the argument say that Sherman was senseless in his attack and that he stubbornly refused to allow the matter to be explained to him. In return Sherman accuses Oscar J. Smith with arrogance and presumption in making the meetings of the directors a "one-man affair."

"The matter is now settled and it is not worth making a statement about," said Smith yesterday. "Sherman accuses the board of directors of the exchange of holding star chamber meetings. But he showed his ignorence of the workings of an exchange by this. Sherman had no business at the meetings and he certainly would not be allowed to attend them in preference to the other members. Sherman and the other members of the exchange have an opportunity to talk at the meetings of the members. When the directors meet it is for the purpose of exercising the powers vested in them by the laws of the exchange.

"Sherman can have my seat if he wants it; we members of the board of directors get no pay for our work and we do not like to be criticised wrongfully."

OFFERS SEMINERY TRACT TO CITY FOR $30,000

Dr. George Fee Says That He Will Sell Park Site if Money Is Produced—Mayor States Price Is Too High for Provisions of Bond Issue

Dr. George Fee, owner of the seminary tract between Sixth, Seventh and Washington streets, may offer the site to the city for a park. The price he sets on the property is $30,000 and as the place is already improved so that a ready expenditure would be unnecessary, it is thought that the council will favorably consider the site.

A bond election for money to purchase a park site is being advertised by the council at present in a Reno weekly newspaper. The sum mentioned is hardly enough to buy a park for $30,000 and at the same time comply with the details of the ordinance as originally drawn. Fee is holding his property for sale and he states that it can be bought by the first parties producing the sum mentioned.

Mayor Wilson, when told of the circumstances, asserted that the city council will consider the matter only when it regularly comes before the body and that the provisions of the bond issue will not make possible the purchasing of the seminary tract for a park at the price which the physician demands. He said that Dr. Fee has not some before the council with any such offer, but that it so unofficially announced to the board.

THIEF WORKS CLEVER RUSE TO GET WATCH

Frank Berry was arrested yesterday afternoon for the alleged theft of a gold watch from the Palace barber shop. Officer Meffly placed the supposed thief in custody, catching him in company with two hard looking characters in Douglass alley.

The barbers say that Berry went into the shop, stating that he had dropped 50 cents through the iron grate in front of the place, and he asked permission to go down into the cellar and search for the money. When he went inside he was seen, it is purported, to feel in the pockets of a vest hanging on the wall. After he left the watch was missed

WATCH THE FIRES ON THE MOUNTAIN TONIGHT

IF EVERYTHING goes well with an expedition started under the leadership of Professor J. E. Church, there will be five signal lights glowing tonight on the five peaks of Mt. Rose. The purpose of the expedition is to complete some work on the mountain top in connection with a weather observatory there. Professor Church has had this project in mind for sometime, and has, largely at his own expense, established a cabin and located observatory instruments there. They will take with them many delicate instruments for the scientific work to be done, and Professor Church believes that observations that will be of material worth to this country will be the result of the observatory.

The party which started out last night is composed of Captain Brambila, C. L. Brown, Singleton Charnock, J. R. Johnson and Professor Church. They made an effort to secure some rockets in Reno yesterday, intending to send them skyward tonigat. It was found impossible, however, to secure the fire works, and so the travelers will carry wood for about a mile from the sides of the mountain to the summits. There are just five peaks and on each of these a fire will be built.

GETS SAND HILL BUT NOT GROUND UNDERNEATH

CARSON, Sept. 21.—A case that is attracting much attention before the Supreme Court here for its strangeness is that of Blandon vs. West, in which the latter sues for a sand hill, alleging that it was traded for a $40 cow and that the holder refuses to deliver it to him.

According to the tangle of evidence Barney Clow, deceased, traded the animal for the property. The court holds that Blandon can have the sand hill, but not the property which lies underneath

The suit is purely one of spite, it is said, and the costs of fees amount to $100, while the value of the property itself is less than $50.

IMPORT RICE FOR DUCK BAIT AT GUN CLUB

Two Hundred Pounds of Food for Wild Game Received by Express in Reno and It Will Be Planted to Attract Birds to the Hunting Grounds

Two hundred pounds of wild rice were received here yesterday by express at the Matt Parrott gun store for the use of the Reno Gun Club, and it will be planted on the preserve a few miles east of here for the ducks to eat.

The rice is shipped in mats, wrapped with moss and kept wet so that it will grow. It is expected that this food will prove so choice that the birds will be attracted by the thousands to the grounds of the club. It is the same food that the ducks of the eastern states eat, the rice growing profusely when it is once planted.

Besides for their own use, the members of the club will sell the wild rice to other gun clubs in this vicinity.

Parrott said yesterday that the wild game this year is plentiful but that it has not yet begun to frequent the preserves. The wild rice is to be used as bait and it is thought by the club men that shooting will be good as soon as the birds begin to feed on it.

COMPANY WILL PUT ON GOOD MATINEE TODAY

"Camille" is the best piece yet done by the Georgia Harper company and as produced last night justified the "standing room only" condition which prevailed at McKissick's.

The familiar story of the younger Alexander Dumas was told by the cast impressively, and the tragedy of the woman who had sinned was made most impressive.

As Camille, the tuberculosis heroine, Miss Harper was at her best. Her characterization of the part was more in line iwth Miss Harper's dramatic gifts than anything she has, thus far, assumed. It compares favorably with the work of greater stage celebrities in the same role.

As Armand, oseph Detrick rendered the star able and at times brilliant support, as did also the cast, which with but few exceptions was equal to the tragic demands of the story.

In the final scene on her death bed, Miss Harper was most effective, dying the scene to the life—or rather, death.

Mention should be made of the stage settings and effects, which were also very good.

THEODORE GIER AGENCY TO BE PLACED IN RENO

Wine Company of California May Establish Branch House to Compete for Nevada Trade in This City—Owns Large Vineyards in California

Theodore Gier Wine company may establish a large wholesale agency in Reno about January 1st and compete for the Nevada trade. Gier will visit Reno in person sometime during October, it is authoritatively stated, to procure store rooms and an office.

Theodore Gier owns large vineyard tracts in several parts of California, and he will ship the product into this state direct from the wine vaults.

During February of this year Gier was in this city looking over the ground and he was impressed by the advantages this city offers for such an enterprise. Arrangements were made then for placing a Gier agency here, but the San Francisco fire prevented the plans being carried out.

One Jockey Is Killed And Another Seriously Injured During Race

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—Jockey Freishon was instantly killed and Jockey C. Ross sustained a fracture of the skull as a result of an accident in the fifth race at Gravesend today. Burns, who also fell, escaped injury.

The race, which was a selling event for 3-year-olds and upwards at one mile and a quarter, drew afield of ten. Freishon had the mount of Joe Levy, C. Ross on Louis H, and C. Burns on Sonoma Belle. These three horses were last away from the post, and trailing their field. As the field was making the paddock turn and in front of the grand stand, Joe Levy, who was on the rail, crossed his legs and fell, bumping Sonoma Belle and causing her to fall. Louis H, who was directly behind Joe Levy stepped on Freishon, crushing him and fell over Joe Levy. Freishon was 16 or 17 years old and was a native of New Orleans, being brought north by M. L. Hayman. Results:

First race, about six furlongs—Suffrage, won; Lotus, second; Jacobite, third. Time, 1:10.

WHEELMEN'S PAVILION RINK

There should be no ennui or lack of amusement at the Wheelmen's roller rink for the next week, considering the list of good things provided for those who wend their way thither.

Of transcendent interest of course is the masquerade skating carnival and dance scheduled for Saturday evening, September 29, 1906. The prizes for the most original costume, the most comic costume, the winners of races, etc., which include two beautiful gold watches, a silver loving cup, a suit case, two pair of skates, etc., which have been on display for the last few days and have excited much admiration.

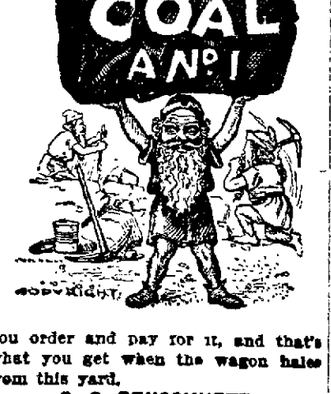

The devotees of skating have taken hold of the masquerade idea with great eagerness and from the hints which have been dropped there will be some costumes worth seeing, both from an artistic and comical point of view. Doubtless all will be "fearfully and wonderfully made."

Besides the exhibition of costumes the grand march, etc., there is to be a unique "ghost waltz" with lights to give the proper effect, a cakewalk on skates by the eptersons from the Piedmont rink, Oakland, and several other features, ending with a grand ball.

A costumer will be at the rink three days before the rink opens for the benet of those who wish his services. s22tf

A recent discovery in the Belle Helen district made on the Ohio group by J. H. Cavander, and found immediately under the surface, is said to have assayed $1000 per ton in gold. Prominent mining men are keeping close watch on this section and excitement there is running high.

News of a rich gold strike on the Red Top claim of the Selby Consolidated mine was received here yesterday, and this morning President Somers, Vice President Bower and Secretary Thomas, will leave for the mine in an automobile for the purpose of ascertaining the value and importance of the discovery.

Particulars of the new find are meagre, embracing the intelligence that the ore was encoutered in one of the tunnels at a spot where values of a rich character were entirely unexpected.

President Somers and his associates will be gone several days on the trip.

OPHIR CANYON THE SCENE OF RICH STRIKE

Rochelle and Party Locate Claims Streaked With Ribbon Quartz—$500 Pay Streak Found in Ten Inch Seam Next to Hanging Wall

The report of another strike in Ophir canyon, less than two miles from the famous Ophir mine, has sent several prospecting parties skurrying out of Tonopah and Goldfield toward the once famous silver diggings during the past few days.

The find which started the rush toward Ohpir canyon was made by Dich Rochelle, beter known as "Gold Mountain Dick," and a party of associates who have been prospecting on several claims located about a mile and a half up the canyon from the old Ophir mine. The Rochelle party has ben at work for six weeks or two months, and about ten days ago a two foot ledge was cut about thirty feet from the surface. The ledge was seamed with ribbon quartz but the big pay streak was found next to the hanging wall, where a seam from eight to ten feet in width and running close to the $500 mark to the ton was found.

Rochelle and his associates kept right on working after the find was made, but a few days ago he came to town to secure provisions and as the news was too good to keep he told some of his friends and it was not long before several parties were heading toward Ophir. Assays from the Rochelle property show the rock to be gold, silver and lead bearing, with a great deal of free gold showing in many of the picked specimens.

The Rochelle find, coupled with the recent Gooding strike at the summit of Ophir canyon, six miles from the new discovery, makes it look as if another of Nevada's famous old silver camps will be resurrected after years of inactivity. The Ophir mine is located in Ophir canyon, about forty-five miles north of Manhattan and one the west side of Smoky Canyon. Fifty years ago this mine was one of the greatest producers in the state and during the period of its operation paid dividends amounting to over $10,000,000. The main shaft of the mine was sunk to a depth of only 200 feet, but the horizontal workings were immense.

Work on the Ophir mine was discontinued because of the inability of the management to cope with the flood of waters that entered the lower levels. Sometime ago a syndicate of Colorado Spring men bonded the property with the intention of working the mine. In order to relieve the mine of the water a 1500 foot drain tunnel will be run from the bottom of the canyon to a point just under the old workings. A corps of engineers is now at work making the surveys for the tunnel.

When it was announced that the old Ophir was to be worked again a number of prospectors went into the district for the purpose of looking over the ground and making locations. A man named Gooding struck a rich gold and silver bearing ledge on the summit of the Ophir canyon about six weeks ago. Now news comes of the Rochelle strike, principally gold. Nevada has startled the world many times before with her wonderful mineral resources. Might it not happen that Ophir, the abandoned silver camp, may soon blossom forth as a gold producer and cause the outside world to remark for the thousandth time, "What will Nevada do next?"

PIOCHE COUNTRY BOOMS WITH OLD TIME VIGOR

Manager B. M. Cornish of the Pioche-Nevada Consolidated company' properties at Pioche has returned from camp, after placing a leaser in possession of a portion of the company's ground. He says that Pioche is picking up every day and that the word at the camp is the construction of the road between Caliente and camp will begin just as soon as it is possible to get material with which to do it.

There is so much going on in the surrounding country at the present time, Mr. Cornish states, that if some one would get into camp and run a good livery stable he could make all kind of money. There is also room for a number of freighters, men with good outfits ready to haul supplies and material not only from the railroad but into the mountains for miles around where work is going on. The new merchandising outfit that is going into business there will be a big thing for the camp, as prices on everything at present are just as as they were in 1873, 50 cents for a package of oatmeal and everything else in proportion. Property values are climbing skyward and everybody is preparing for the boom which it is felt is moving in that direction.

MANHATTAN PLACER CLAIMS PROVING VALUABLE

Gravel Carries From $4 to $12 Values in Gold Lowest Average Four and One-Half Ounces Daily by Dry Washing

MANHATTAN, Nev., Sept. 21.—Abundant proof of the richness of the ledges in the Stray Dog and Jumping Jack properties is found in the almost fabulous wealth of the placer ground in the gulches on these two claims. In California, by the hydraulic process, ground running only 10 cents a ton is profitably worked. Imagine the profits of handling placer that carries a dollar a ton or yard.

Yet the Stray Dog and Indian Camp gravel carries anywhere from $4 to $12 a yard!

This is difficult to believe, yet any Doubting Thomas may be convinced if he goes to the drywasher that is being operated by Messrs. Brooks & Marshall on these claims, or take a look at their cleanup, which is deposited every evening in the safe at the Palace hotel.

Every evening a ten-pound sack is brought from the riffles of the dry washer and plentifully mixed with it is the dust of gold and nuggets running from pinhead size up to dollar chunks.

At the end of the week the owners amalgamate their gold and retort it, geting a splendid bar. The lowest average for any week thus far has been at the rate of four and one-half ounces a day and the best was at the rate of over nine ounces a day.

The gold is worth $15 an ounce, making the wages of the two men very from $67.50 to twice that sum, less the 10 per cent paid to the company.

Imagine, if you please, what would be the cleanup if there were a head of water wherewith to hydraulic, or even to operate sluice boxes. The latter will be the case when the new water system is installed. It must also be remembered that the dry washing system does not save all the gold, as it is impossible to charge the machine with quicksilver.

The future of Manhattan as a placer camp is assured with the coming of a water supply, but the most important feature of the case is the assured richness of the Jumping Jack and Stray Dog, in which there is a ledge, hidden by a shallow coating of surface earth, which has sent forth by erosion this golden treasure.

These two claims hold an amazing surprise, not only for their owners, but for the whole world, when the lucky trench or open cut lays bare the source of this wash gold. The configuration of the land gives a certainty that the gold has not traveled from beyond the confines of these properties.

TRADE AND FINANCE IN THE WORLD'S MARKETS

New York Stocks Close Heavy and Entire Market Firm, Grains Steady to Firm, Provisions Strong, Wools Steady

NEW YORK Sept 21—The shrinkage in the volume of dealings in today's stock market was principally due to the lessening of the furious activity in a few stocks which has kept up the aggregate for several days past. Reading and Southern Pacific were still active but nothing like the same degree as for some days past.

Outside of the speculative favorites the market was exceedingly dull and sluggish and nearly stagnant at times. The dullness of the market in face of an appreciably easier condition of the call loan market and the promise of a substantial increase in the banking surplus to be shown in tomorrow's bank statement was the occasion of various theories to account for it.

Voices were heard in the financial district to point out that an inference might be drawn that speculative demand was not so eager to lick up resources in the call loan market as detractors had alleged.

Secretary Shaw's circular to the national banks warning against lending government funds for speculation has impressed upon the minds of stock market borrowers that they must wait on signs of urgent need in other departments of the money market than the call branch to obtain fresh relief measures by the treasury department.

The contrast in the call loan rate receding to below six per cent with the stock market quiet and gilt edged mercantile paper commanding 6½ to 7 per cent and also loans for sixty and ninety days commanding a premium equal to an interest above 7 per cent was regarded in stock market circles as glowing evidence of the innocence of speculative borrowers of an apart in the responsibility for high money rates.

This contrast was felt to offer a convincing argument in favor of new relief measures by the treasury department. The belief was ... confident in fact that further deposits of government funds in national banks was immediately imminent.

Estimates of the week's movements of cash point to a gain by the banks of upwards of $11,000,000.

The closing tone was heavy and there was no relief from the predominant dullness.

Bonds were steady. Total sales par value $1,4 4,000. United States 2s coupon declined ¼ per cent on call.

Grains and Provisions

CHICAGO Sept 21—The wheat market opened strong on good buying by commission houses and shorts. The chief factors were firm cables, small shipments from Argentine and light northwestern receipts.

Later news came that the northwestern crop has been overestimated and that the yield in that section will be about twenty million bushels less than last year. Wet weather and unfavorable farm reports were also factors for higher prices. Local traders fought the advance strongly, selling heavily every time the market halted. They made no impression on the market however until after the middle of the discussion when prices declined under the constant hammering. The market for cash wheat was firm throughout the day.

The market closed firm. December ... higher at ... sold between ... and ... and closed ... higher at ...

Trading in the corn pit was chiefly in the September delivery, prices in that option climbing from 49½@48⅝c. Cash corn up ... to a similar extent. December opened ... higher at 43@43 ... sold between ... and 43¼c and closed ¼@⅛c down at 43c.

The slump in corn and the loss of the early advance in wheat caused an easy close to the oats market. December opened ... higher at 34¼@31⅝c, sold between 33⅝c and 34⅛c and closed ⅛@¼c lower at 33⅝@34.

The provisions market was firm chiefly on an advance of 5c in the price of live hogs. At the close January pork was 10 c higher, lard was up ... and ribs were ... lower.

PRINCIPLES OF TRUE DEMOCRACY ARE TOLD

1—The Democrats and Silver men of Nevada rejoice in the nation's continued prosperity in the abundant crops, the goodly yields of the mines, the full employment of labor and the favorable balance of foreign trade. But we deplore the manner in which this vast increase of wealth produced by the energy and industry of all our people is more and more concentrated in the hands of a few as the inevitable consequence of inadequate laws, of special privileges of gigantic monopolies in the necessities of life and of the control of all the sources of legislation by the alliance between organized politics and organized wealth.

We favor the election of United States Senators by the direct vote of the people.

REVISION OF TARIFF

2—We favor a careful well considered revision of tariff schedules which shall aim at the reduction or total removal of the duties on articles of American manufacture sold more cheaply in foreign countries than at home, and which shall deprive industrial monopolies of the power to exploit both producers and consumers by arbitrary methods and prices.

RATE REGULATION

4 We hail the railroad rate legislation enacted by the present Congress as the first step in a program which looks to the growing aggression of national authority over great aggregations of capital and we claim this step of progress as a Democratic victory because the Republican administration which urged that measure found not only its inspiration but its specific plan in the Democratic National Platform of 1904 and received a united Democratic support in the enactment of the law.

HOPE IS IN DEMOCRATIC PARTY

—We declare it to be our conviction that President ...'s only hope of success in framing effective laws to stop the aggressions of monopoly ... transportation in industry and in high finance lies in the election of a Democratic Congress in November next. The Republican majority in the present Congress deliberately emasculated the last important measures which came before it for consideration in order to make them as ineffective as possible.

It ... the railroad bill with awkward provisions for judicial review.

It put the expense of meat inspection wholly upon the public and refused to require the placing of dates upon labels to show when the meat was packed.

It neglected to provide an appropriation for the execution of the Pure Food Bill so ... that it ... a dead letter.

We ... and ... Senate ... all the Republican ... measures ... forbidding ... campaign contributions by corporations and requiring full publicity of all campaign funds thus showing that the notorious partnership between ... Republican managers and the trusts is to continue to debauch our national elections.

6—We ... to our official position on the money question. We claim that the quantitative theory of money has been vindicated by history. We rejoice that history has verified all the contentions of the great Democratic ... in 1896 ... Democratic opinion, and that public sentiment now demands the installment in the high position of which he was ... unjustly deprived by a campaign of misrepresentation, corruption and fraud unequalled in the history of the country.

GOV SPARKS COMMENDED

7 We congratulate the people of Nevada upon the impartial and able administration of Governor Sparks. His administration has been characterized by industrial peace which should be gratifying to all classes alike. During his administration the eight hour law was passed and upheld by the Supreme Court of this state. During his administration important measures relating to irrigation and taxation have been passed promoting the development of the state on sound lines, equalizing assessment and reducing rates of taxation both county and state. During his administration both capital and labor have been fully protected and the just rights of both maintained. Considering ... that Nevada has entered upon a new era of prosperity, we trust that Governor Sparks' administration will be the prophecy of industrial peace and continued prosperity in the future.

8—We favor the enactment of a just and equitable Employers' Liability Act for the protection of the lives and limbs of employees.

SENATOR NEWLANDS ENDORSED

9—We commend with pride and satisfaction the able and effective work of our senior United States Senator, Francis G. Newlands. The great irrigation law with which his name will forever be identified is working a marvelous transformation in the social and economic life of sixteen states and territories, and supplying new hope to millions of American citizens who will obtain homes under its beneficent operation.

In view of his splendid service we most heartily endorse his candidacy for re-election in 1908.

10 We are earnestly in favor of the creation by law of the office of bank inspector to the end that depositors of money in such institutions may be adequately protected.

11 We believe that legislation should at all times be passed with a view to the comfort and safety of the working man and to that end it is urged that suitable laws be enacted by the next legislature of this state providing for a mine inspector who shall examine all mines, shafts, tunnels, drifts, etc, and keep all the works up to a certain standard to be fixed by law.

12—In the rapid upbuilding now going on in our state it is extremely important that ample provision shall be made for public school instruction. Too long the schools outside of the larger towns have drifted on with no adequate supervision and apparently with no effort on the part of the educational department to provide a definite course of study or to introduce practical lines of work on a systematic basis. We favor a practical state course of study through supervision, county and state ample funds for the schools and liberal salaries for the teachers.

UNIVERSITY

The State University should receive especial attention. It is purely a state institution and is doing a noble work for our young men and women. We favor liberal appropriations for its support and such legislation as will place and keep it at all times on a cash basis. The university should be kept entirely out of politics and with that end in view we favor the nomination of but two of the four regents to be chosen at the coming election, one for the long term and one for the short term, at the same time authorizing the State Central Committee to fill the vacancies upon the ticket from the candidates selected by the Republican party if that party take similar action, otherwise to fill the vacancies as may be deemed best.

13—We demand that the United States mint at Carson City be opened for the coinage of gold and silver according to law.

STATE TERMINAL POINT

14—We are in favor of indicating in the most positive terms to all railroads traversing our state that we expect and demand the establishment by each of them of a terminal point in Nevada in conformity with the Interstate Commerce Law.

15—We believe that the interests of capital and labor are interdependent and pledge ourselves to do all that lies in our power by means of legislation and other legitimate methods to foster and protect their interests.

We believe that laboring men should be encouraged and given the greatest freedom to organize and combine for the betterment and protection of their social, educational and financial condition and for the purpose of securing for themselves fair wages and working hours. As we have done in the past we shall also in the future encourage the adoption of the eight hour laboring day in all occupations where it is reasonable and appropriate and extend it by legislation to all occupations where the constitution will permit.

CAPITAL PROTECTED

We stand for the fullest protection of capital and of vested property interests and shall endeavor to encourage the greatest possible investment of outside and local capital in our state by careful and liberal legislation in its protection and by the impartial administration of existing laws.

BRYAN THE MAN

The election of 1906 will be the prelude of the great Presidential struggle of 1908. The Democratic standard bearer of two years hence is already nominated in the hearts of the American people. Twice before the people of Nevada have given an overwhelming majority of their votes to the great leader and statesman whom destiny has clearly marked as the next President of the United States. In this year's campaign we are fighting his battle, as through ten weary years he has fought the battle of Nevada. If Nevada would pay her debt of gratitude to one who has fought the fight and kept the faith, if Nevada would see the aspirations of her people triumphant two years hence she will make sure of a Democratic victory in November next and thereby express in unmistakable terms her confidence in the leadership, the character and the wisdom of the next President of the United States, William Jennings Bryan.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

A MINER FOR GOVERNOR

MUCH stress is being laid by the Republican press on the claim that as mining is just now the paramount industry of the State we should elect a practical miner to the Governorship. Of course this argument is used in the interest of Mr Mitchell, the Republican candidate What other capabilities Mr. Mitchell possesses that would single him out as eminently fitted to become the Chief Executive of this great State we are waiting to learn. Nobody seems to know very much about him except that he has been a mine "boss" and has never had any serious trouble with the men under his charge. That he has ever been an empolyer on his own account does not appear. There is no record so far as we have been able to learn that he has ever invested a dollar in mining in Nevada outside of transactions on the stock board. It is true that he is said to be associated with numerous other gentlemen in the exploitation of southern Nevada properties, but more as a promoter than as an investor—in other words, he is interested in a number of schemes where outside money makes the game.

Now, there may or may not be anything discreditable in this speculative calling—it all depends upon the manner in which the business is conducted, and in all fairness we will say that we know of nothing to the discredit of Mr. Mitchell in his mine promotions. But it does not follow that a successful mine operator or mine "boss" will necessarily make an ideal Governor.

At the present stage of the development of Nevada we need a man who is experienced in all lines of business and such a man we have already in Governor Sparks, whose wide experience in the handling of an extensive and varied private business peculiarly fits him to represent all classes. Nor can Mr. Mitchell claim a monopoly over our versatile Chief Executive in the mining industry. Governor Sparks' investments in mining are probably as great as any private individual within our borders. That he has not been as successful as some others, that his experience was dearly bought, cannot be used as an argument as opposed to the fact that whatever losses he has met with are private losses and hence he cannot be accused of speculating on other people's money.

But aside from mining, Governor Sparks' long residence in the State, his intimate knowledge of the needs of every section of it, his wide acquaintance with men and conditions, which knowledge has been amplified and broadened by four years in the Executive Chair, makes it dangerous to experiment with an untried and comparative stranger at this time. We do not believe that the people of the State of Nevada desire a change, and especially one that involves the substitution of an untried stranger for an old, experienced and trusted resident of the State.

BRYAN'S SINCERITY

DISCUSSING the railroad question in a purely casual way the other night, Mr. Bryan said:

"I should be very glad indeed to know that mere government control of our railroads might become effective I should be immensely pleased to have it demonstrated that the great railroad systems of the country might be safely supervised so that all of the people would share in the benefits. So far such control has been all but a pleasant fiction. Once it is demonstrated that the government cannot control the railroads, the next step is too obvious. Once it is demonstrated beyond doubt that the government can control the railroads, there will be no one more willing than I to support legislation, thus proving its effectiveness."

That is the spirit of William Jennings Bryan "the greatest good to the greatest number" is the idea one gets from a close observation of the man Frank and cordial in personal contact, considerate of individuals, confident of himself, faithful to his friends, thoughtless of mere politics, he presents the oddest combination known to American public life in many years. He has been freely criticised, even by friends, for taking part in the Illinois fight. To this criticism he has replied that he was not fighting against Roger Sullivan personally, nor for Illinois friends personally, but for an active principle And let it be set down here in prophecy that, regardless of the stir created by the Roger Sullivan incident, Mr. Bryan is more than likely to do the same sort of thing somewhere else. Let the principle present itself in a State where a Bryan endorsement is involved, and he will take exactly the position he has taken in Illinois.

Mr Bryan's differences with Roger Sullivan in Illinois is paralleled in New York where President Roosevelt was called upon to oppose the Odell-Quigg element in the Republican party. To a Democrat it is somewhat amusing to note the attempts of the Republican press to explain how it is that what has been denounced as dictatorship in the case of Bryan becomes tranmuted into purification of the ballot when President Roosevelt is involved.

matter where you go, or what maker's name is on the garment, ask if it's all-wool. Don't be put off without a plain answer. The clothier may say—"You know me; you know I wouldn't sell you anything that wasn't all right;" but that doesn't answer the question. Does it?

If he says "yes," you can't tell, perhaps, whether it is all wool or not; he may think it it; maybe he doesn't know.

There's only one sure way of knowing what you're getting in clothes this fall, aside from a chemical test of the fabrics; and that way is to buy goods that are guaranteed by the maker to be all-wool and all the rest that goes with it.

We offer you Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes because the makers dare to take a positive ground on the quality question; they don't dodge; they don't keep silent; they're positive in their statement and in their facts. You can depend on them; and us.
